

Important Notes from Mrs. Luzzo November 21, 2025

Don't forget to ROAR!

Happy Friday, Trinity Lions! Thank you to those who have already completed the annual parent survey. In order for us to retain our accreditation with Cognia, we need at least one adult from each family to click this link: eProve™ surveys to complete the required annual survey. It only takes a few minutes. All faculty and 5th grade students will be required to complete similar surveys as well. Thank you in advance for your support and valuable feedback.

Reminder, these communications, as well as all school related news, can be found on our school website (Holy Trinity Catholic School | North Myrtle Beach, SC). You can also check our school Facebook page (Facebook) for quick reminders and photos.

Sunday's Readings - The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe

Reading 1: 2 Samuel 5:1-3: In those days, all the tribes of Israel came to David in Hebron and said: "Here we are, your bone and your flesh. In days past, when Saul was our king, it was you who led the Israelites out and brought them back. And the LORD said to you, 'You shall shepherd my people Israel and shall be commander of Israel.'" When all the elders of Israel came to David in Hebron, King David made an agreement with them there before the LORD, and they anointed him king of Israel.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 122:1-2, 3-4, 4-5 - R. (cf. 1) Let us go rejoicing to the house of the Lord.

I rejoiced because they said to me, "We will go up to the house of the LORD."

And now we have set foot within your gates, O Jerusalem. R.

Jerusalem, built as a city with compact unity. To it the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD. R.

According to the decree for Israel, to give thanks to the name of the LORD. In it are set up judgment seats, seats for the house of David. R.

Reading 2: Colossians 1:12-20: Brothers and sisters: Let us give thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light. He delivered us from the power of darkness and transferred us to the kingdom of his beloved Son, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins. He is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation. For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth, the visible and the invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things were created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. He is the head of the body, the church. He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead, that in all things he himself might be preeminent. For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell, and through him to reconcile all things for him, making peace by the blood of his cross through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Alleluia: Mark 11:9, 10 - R. Alleluia, alleluia: Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is to come! R.

Gospel: Luke 23:35-43: The rulers sneered at Jesus and said, "He saved others, let him save himself if he is the chosen one, the Christ of God." Even the soldiers jeered at him. As they approached to offer him wine they called out, "If you are King of the Jews, save yourself." Above him there was an inscription that read, "This is the King of the Jews." Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Christ? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation? And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." He replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
